VOL. XXXIV. NO. 4.

STANFORD, LINCOLN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, JANUARY 12, 1912.

EVERY TUESDAY AND FRIDAY

JIM WOODS CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF FAIR.

Pythians Elect Officers And Directors And Get Down To Work For A Big Exhibition.

Plans for the Knights of Pythias fair at Stanford were set on foot with a whoop at the meeting of the lodge on Thursday night when officers and directors were elected, and orders given them to go ahead with plans and arrangements for the big exhibition.

James H. Woods, better known to his friends as "Jim" Woods, was elected President of the fair by acclamation, and those who know him and everybody does, know that he will make an ideal man for the place. No more popular or more capable official could have been found, and he will "make good". Jack Beazley, and M. B. Salin were elected Vice Presidents, and James F. Cummins was chosen as Secretary and Treasurer. Mr. Cummins has had much experience with such work before, and is acknowledged by all to be the man for the place.

The board of directors chosen was as follows: R. T. Bruce, P. L. Beck, J. L. Beazley, Sam Castello, Tom P. Ends, J. C. Eubanks, J. A. Harris, J. N. Menefee, Jr., J. Will Rount, Shelton Sanfey, W. H. Wearden, H. C. Wray and J. H. Woods.

It was voted that the practice of issuing complimentary tickets will be entirely eliminated from the conduct of this fair. This practice is generally abused to a great extent by most of the fairs, and in order that the income of the fair may be made as much as possible for the benefit of the lodge, every complimentary ticket is to be cut out, in fact there will be no complimentary tickets printed, every officer and director and every member buying his ticket.

The next thing will be the selection of dates for the fair, but this will probably not be done by the directors until consultation is held with the fairs at Danville, Lanesville, Broadhead, Somerset, and other neighboring counties, so that the dates will conflict with none of those fairs. The latter part of August seems to be very generally favored.

SHOOTING AT PAINT LICK.

Thomas Ralston shot George Finley at Paint Lick at Paint Lick last Saturday the bullet entering his neck and causing partial paralysis. Finley who, it is said was about to draw his own pistol, let it fall when he was shot, and fell. Mrs. Rodney Grize, a sister of Ralston and Frank Ralston his son, caught Ralston to disarm him and as they did so his pistol went off, he bullet this time striking his sister in the hip, but not dangerously wounding her. The shooting took place in the store of Treadway & Woods, the prominent merchants of Paint Lick, and is said to have been the outcome of an old election quarrel. Ralston was arrested by Sheriff Ballard and released on $300 bond till his examining trial.

HOUSE BURNS DOWN

The home of Peter L. Elam two miles from Stanford on the Crab Orchard pike, burned down last Wednesday night about 11 o'clock. Mr. Elam was away from home at the time, but his wife and six children who were at home escaped and managed to get a few articles of furniture out. Mr. Elam had no insurance on the place and a number of his friends made up a little sum to help him and his family out in their extremity, which was greatly appreciated by him and his family.

THE PASSING AWAY OF A GOOD MAN

I have read with much sorrow the death notice of Mr. Alex. C. Robinson which appeared in your Tuesday's edition. It was a magnificent account of the life and death of one of nature's noblemen. The article covers the ground so well that there is little left to say, but I crave space of you to give my humble views of this Saul of Tarsus of men.

Over thirty years ago it was my good fortune to meet him and from that time I had known him most intimately. It was always a pleasure to meet him, for his hearty handshake and encouraging words were a stimulant and a benediction. When I first became business manager of the Interior Journal, over 25 years ago, I frequently met him at courts and he was of great assistance to me, locating patrons of the paper and saying a good word to those whose names I was making an effort to add to the subscription list. I remember so well one court at Lanesville. I had done poorly in my work up to noon and discouragingly told Mr. Robinson about it. He replied that he would try to help me a little, and doing far more than he promised, that court proved to be one of the most valuable to the I. J. of the hundred or more I attended in Garrard's capital. I mention this incident merely to show the heart of the man and his desire to help along any man he thought worthy and any cause he deemed good. There are few like him the more the pity, and it was an unfortunate day for Lincoln county when he left us to spend his declining years in Garrard.

Mr. Robinson was a gentleman of much useful information and of far more culture and polish than the average farmer. A great reader and a deep reasoner, his brilliant mind retained all he read and saw. He was a Christian in all the word means and his honor and integrity were doubted by none. As a citizen he was a model, whose splendid life should be emulated by the youths of the present and coming generations. In fact he was one of those men who made the world better by having lived in it, and he leaves his widow and four children the heritage of a good name, which is more precious than great riches.

May the sod lie lightly on his grave and may he give the wife and children, who are now so bowed down with grief, strength to bear the loss they have sustained.

Pence to the ashes of the good man and may the angels gently bear the spirit to the God who gave it.

MULE MARKET PICKING UP

Senator R. L. Hubble returned from Atlanta, where he and Tom Rankin disposed of a couple of loads of mighty nice mules. They were fairly good prices, much better than have been ruling in the south for some time. Senator Hubble said that within the past week or so, the mule market down south has begun to pick up after its awful slump which came as a result of the low price in cotton. From now on he expects to see a steady demand for the right kind of mules from the south.

HENRY MINOR

Moreland, Ky., Jan. 10, 1912.
On December 21 1911 at 9 o'clock the spirit of Mr. Henry Minor winged its flight to its home of eternal bliss and happiness. Mr. Minor left a Christian wife and daughter, and a multitude of friends to mourn his departure. He was a patient sufferer for several weeks, but at last God said "It is enough come up higher." We realize that the place is vacant in the home that never can be filled but we would not call him back to this world of sin, but try to live to meet him in that sweet home where we can sing the praises of God forever where we will never say good bye. To the broken hearted mother and daughter we would say, weep not, only think it will not be long until you will clasp hands again on that sweet shore of eternal deliverance. Our hearts go out in sympathy and prayer for the bereaved ones who are left so lonely.

"God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform. He whispers love in every breeze and rides upon the storm." Good bye loved one thou art not dead but sleepeth. Sweet memories linger with us here, And oft we drop a silent tear; We bow submissive to His will, and love you dearer, dearer still.

A loving friend,

BANK STOCKHOLDERS HOLD ANNUAL MEETING.

Board of Directors Are Elected For Ensuing Year—Two Prominent Young Men on Lincoln Board.

Most of the banks in Lincoln county elected their board of directors at the annual stockholders' meeting on January 9th.

The First National of Stanford re-elected its directorate with no changes. The Lincoln County National did the same. However, just before the first of the year, the names of Sam J. Embury, Jr., and J. W. Rochester were added to the roster in the places of E. P. Owsley, of Columbus, Ga., and W. H. Traylor, deceased. Both of the new directors are among the most prominent young men of the county and will prove valuable additions to the board.

The State Bank & Trust Co., elected its directorate composed of J. D. Eads, G. L. Penny, George D. Florence, W. H. Duddar, J. W. Williams, M. F. Lawrence, Dr. M. M. Phillips, W. P. Logan, L. R. Hughes, W. S. Denham, Henry Anderson and R. L. Collier. The same officers of the bank were re-elected.

FROZEN TO ROCK.

And Rabbit's Feet Came Off When Joe Ross Caught It.

Joe Ross, tobacco man, on Smith Baughman's farm, tells the prize cold weather story heard about town after the recent snow storm. Mr. Ross was walking over the farm when the thermometer was hovering around the 0 mark, when he espied a rabbit crouching in a corner on a stone. The little animal made no effort to jump and run as he approached and he wondered what was the matter. He came close to it, thinking perhaps it was so frightened or so cold that it could not move. Getting near enough Mr. Ross reached down quickly and grabbed the little cotton tail. He caught it and held on to it tight, and it came away from its resting place with a jerk. What was his surprise when he glanced at it closely to see that the soles of its little feet had been left on the rock to which the rabbit had been frozen. It was evidently suffering intensely so he put it out of its pain at once.

McKINNEY

Miss Clara Lindholm, who has been the attractive visitor of her sister Mrs. Chas. Beck returned to her home in Kewanee, Ill., Saturday much to the regret of her many friends she made while here.

Our graded school will close Friday and the scholars will give an entertainment at the Christian church on Friday night. All the patrons have been well pleased with the work of Prof. Johnson and Miss Mada Butler.

The death of Mrs. Annie Paul, who died here last week, was quite a shock to her friends as she was not considered very ill at the time, but her heart gave away and she died rather suddenly. Mrs. Paul was 37 years of age and leaves a mother and son to mourn her death. Mrs. Paul was a member of the Baptist church and leaves a host of friends to mourn her death. Strew your flowers upon the grave, dear mother, and console your broken heart with the tender thought that if she could speak to you she would tell you to be faithful and affectionate in the discharge of your duties to the living. Then cheer your fond mourners who sadly weep for happy are they who in Jesus sleep.

Herbert Gann was sick last week with tonsillitis.

The many friends of Margaret Sandidge will be glad to learn that she has recovered enough from her recent illness to be moved from the hospital in Louisville to her aunt, Mrs. Chas. Sandidge's at Millidgeville. She will be home in a couple of weeks.

Several important changes have been made within the past few days relating to the sale and management of the estate of the late W. H. Traylor. Dan Traylor has taken over Mr. Traylor's home place, including the Traylor distillery, A. T. Dan Traylor will operate the distillery upon the same basis that it has been run in the past and upon the same standard, it is said.

U. S. Traylor will take over the Duddar's mill property, and operate it upon the same high standard it has known in the past. He is an experienced miller and will have complete charge of the management.

LINCOLN SOLONS

GET GOOD PLACES

On Committees In House and Senate And Farra and Douglas Are In Good—Legislative News.

Lincoln county's representatives fared very well in the assignment of members to committees at the organization of the Senate and House this week. Senator R. L. Hubble was given the important chairmanship of Agriculture and State fair and placed upon the following other committees: Commerce and Common Carriers, Executive Affairs, Military Affairs, Mines and Mining.

Representative Will H. Shanks was given the chairmanship of the Committee on Internal Improvement in the House and placed on these Committees: Appropriations, Criminal Law, Forestry, Juvenile Courts and Children's Home, Public Utilities, and Suffrage and Elections.

Will H. Shanks will be in Georgia for the next two or three weeks, looking after his horse and mule business there. He will make an effort to get back to the legislature in time to have his vote recorded on most of the important measures which are expected to come up at this session. Senator R. L. Hubble has just returned from a trip south with a couple of carloads of mules and will be in Frankfort for the remainder of the session.

Representative John M. Farra, of Garrard, and Francis B. Douglas, of Boyle, who are both taking very important parts in the legislative session, received fine committee appointments. Mr. Farra was placed in the chairmanship of the Roads and Highways committee which means that he will engineer the passage of the good roads bill through the house. Mr. Douglas was made chairman on the committee on State Canals.

So far the sessions of both houses have dealt principally with work of organization, the election of Ollie M. James as United States Senator, and the adoption of rules. A number of bills have been introduced, the first in the Senate being the direct primary bill, offered by Senator Eaton of Paducah.

CAPT. GOYEN NO MORE

His many friends here were greatly shocked late last week to learn of the death at Lexington, of Capt. David H. Goyen, who made Stanford his home for a long time. His death occurred at Lexington, where his family lived. Capt. Goyen was one of the most enthusiastic Masons in the state and took great interest in the work of coaching young Masons in the work of the order. Capt. Goyen in his day was quite a politician, and stumped a number of states in the interest of the democratic nominees. Although an uncompromising democrat, he had served with honor in the Federal army during the Civil War, and had received a pension for injuries received in battle.

The Lexington Herald had the following to say of his death there:

Mr. David Henry Goyen, aged 73 years, died last night at his home, 173 Park avenue, of organic heart trouble. Mr. Goyen formerly was a painter and was a member of a number of fraternal organizations, including Lincoln Lodge No. 60, Free and Accepted Masons of Stanford; Ivanhoe Lodge No. 48, Knights of Pythias of Winchester; and the Odd Fellows Lodge of Stanford. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Sidney, Norman and Stanley Goyen, all of this city, and three daughters. His daughters are Misses Amelia and Blanche Goyen of Lexington, and Mrs. Edna Turin of McMinnville, Tenn. The funeral services took place at the residence Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Richard W. Wallace officiating. Burial followed in the Lexington cemetery.

CHAIR CAR SERVICE INSTALLED.

The Louisville & Nashville Train No. 23 now carries a chair car between Louisville and Atlanta, which is a great improvement in the service. Chair car and Pullman with buffet make No. 23's service as good as that of any train in the country and her time averages up with the fast trains south of the Ohio river. The L. & N. is a great corporation and does not stop at expenses in giving its patrons the best service to be had.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

CURTIS EGBERT.

William Curtis Egbert was born September 29, 1871, died December 12, 1911. He was a son of Judge Anderville and Kate Egbert of Crab Orchard, Ky. It is with great sadness we note the death of this excellent young man whom we have known so long and had the pleasure of teaching for several years of his young life. As a pupil he was always energetic and ambitious, faithful in the performance of every duty. As a man he was a thorough gentleman in every sense of the word, courteous and dutiful, faithful in his dealings. As a business man he was capable of occupying any position. His great love for his mother was not the least redeeming trait of character with Curtis. She was first and everything to him, and from last September to the day of his death he never left his bed, but was never so sick that he did not try to plan a way for her to live easy after his death. He was fully aware of his condition, and made every arrangement for death as calmly as if preparing for an earthly journey. He was prepared to enter his heavenly home and admonished all his comrades and friends to live so as to meet him again. The greatest attention was paid him from every one in Crab Orchard. All were untiring in their efforts to make his last hours pleasant. Rev. Jasper Livingston was to have preached his funeral but was detained, so Mr. J. C. McClary made a beautiful talk after which a large concourse of sorrowing friends followed the remains to the cemetery where he was laid beside the graves of his father and sister. His grave was covered with white carnations and other beautiful flowers offering gifts of relatives and friends and relatives.

To the lonely mother, bereft of the last tie that can bind her to earth, we extend our heartfelt sympathy, and prayers in this dark hour and would say, look away from this mound of earth to the bright sunlight of God's love and see the radiant faces of husband and children looking out for you. There once more you can be a happy united family with no sickness, sorrow or death and it will not be long at the best until you hear again their loving welcome home. Be thankful you had them all with you in death and was allowed the sweet pleasure of doing all you could to minister to their wants and be thankful that instead of terrible struggles, you saw them sweetly close their eyes in sleep, to awaken again, in a better and more perfect life. A friend.

RECORD PRICE MADE AT PEOPLE'S HOUSE

All Tobacco Records of Danville Broker Thursday By Average of $21.50 For Crop.

All records for prices on the loose leaf market at Danville were broken at the People's Warehouse Thursday when an average of $21.50 a hundred was paid for the crop of Jason Meadows, a well known Boyle county farmer. This is a record price, for the tobacco market in this part of the state and created much interest among the growers who were present with their crops. Unusually high prices for the weed have been received at the People's Warehouse within the past week or ten days, and Col. Ike Dunn says that the market is getting better all the time. Shortly after the Meadows' sale another high average, which is almost up to the new record, was paid for the crop of Whitsett Bean, of Boyle, which brought an average of $21.10.

Altogether 80,000 pounds were sold at the People's Warehouse on Thursday, the whole lot bringing an average of $13.70. Growers are greatly pleased with the treatment they are receiving at the People's Warehouse and the sale of the Meadows and Bean crops and that of F. N. The Democratic national convention will be held at Baltimore on June 5 about a week after the republican national convention. This was decided at a meeting of the Democratic national committee early this week. St. Louis was the nearest contender to the Oriole city. All of the big bugs in the party were present at the committee meeting at Washington, and harmony was in the air. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, was easily the favorite for the presidential nomination, and his friends claim that after one or two ballots for favorite sons, the convention will stampede to him. Bryan was on hand, and held several long conferences with Wilson. It is claimed that Bryan is heartily for the nomination of the New Jersey Governor, who fully represents the progressive principles which are so truly representative of democratic principles. Kentucky must not be found behind, and should give her vote to him in the convention.

It is now Senator Ollie M. James, the big and brainy congressman having been promoted by the legislature this week. All hail to the new Senator. For many years he has fought the battles of Democracy and the people in the lower House, and has well earned the reward which comes for his devotion and faithful service as well as the encomium "Well done, thou good and faithful servant." Kentucky is to be congratulated upon her new representative in the "most deliberative body on earth."

The lobbyists were absolutely put out of business by the rules adopted by the house and senate at Frankfort this week. All lobbyists were excluded from the floors of both chambers. Senate rules of last session were amended so that the majority shall rule in all cases. The House adopted similar rules and it seems that at last the people are about to obtain their rights from the legislature.

If anybody or any organization can make a success of a fair in Lincoln county it is Diadem Lodge Knights of Pythias. When this bunch of live ones takes hold of any proposition it is bound to succeed. Just watch some of the best boosting a fair ever got in Lincoln or anywhere else. The K. P.'s fair is a winner for sure.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society, building, one of the finest in New York and valued at $10,000,000 was completely gutted by fire Tuesday morning. Three men leaped from the roof to death in the streets below. Each was seen to kneel in prayer just before he jumped. When all earthly help is of no avail, man then turns to God, but most of us put it off until the very last minute.

Preacher Richeson, of Boston who confessed to the murder of his sweet heart was sentenced to die in the electric chair the week of May 19. Now if a soft-hearted governor doesn't commute his sentence, justice will be satisfied in one case, at least.

FALL AND WINTER STYLES.

My new fall and winter samples are now ready for your inspection. They comprise the best on the market and suit anyone as to price who had his clothes made to order. A suit made to your measure is preferable to ready made clothes. To have them made to measure doesn't cost any more than ready made when quality and fit is considered. Come in and let me take your measure.

How to be Certain of Curing Constipation

Prejudice is a hard thing to overcome, but where health is at stake and the opinion of thousands of reliable people differs from yours, prejudice then becomes your enemy and you ought to lay it aside. This is said in the latest of people suffering from chronic constipation, and it is worthy of their attention. In the opinion of legions of reliable Americans, people the most stubborn constipation imaginable can be cured by a brief use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. You may not have heard of it before, but do not doubt its merits on that account, or because it has not been blantly advertised. It has sold very successfully on word of mouth recommendation. Parents are giving it to their children today who were given it by their parents, and it has been truthfully said that more druggists use it personally in their families than any other laxative.

Letters recently received from M. E. Myers, Morrison, Tenn., and Ada Hamersmith, 118 W. Chestnut St., Louisville, Ky., are but a few of thousands showing the esteem in which Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is held. It is mild, gentle, non-gripping—not violent like salts or cathartics. It cures gradually and pleasantly so that in time nature again does its own work without outside aid. Constipated people owe it to themselves to use this grand bowel specific. Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 408 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

A SERMON FROM THE BENCH

Only a week or two ago Judge Ben Hill of Atlanta, presiding judge of the Court of Appeals said that after five years on the bench, he could affirm that three-fourths of the crimes are due to the use of intoxicants. He made this statement in passing judgment in the case of the young man, Will Livingston, who, while attempting to protect his mother from violence at the hands of his drunken father had struck the elder man a blow that resulted in his death, and for which the boy had been convicted for manslaughter.

In delivering his opinion Judge Hill gave the following powerful arraignment of the liquor evil: "The act of this case presents another of the daily occurring instances showing the monstrous and measureless evil of intoxicating liquors. This hydra-headed remorseless monster, with ceaseless and tireless energy wastes the substance of the poor, manufactures burdensome taxes for the public, monopolizes the valuable time of courts, ruins homes, destroys manhood, terrorizes helpless women and innocent children, battles the church, and moves at law, and answering its inexorable demands each new morning new widows mourn, new orphans cry, new wrongs strike heaven in the face. "These are the products of a curse imposed not by the decree of God, but self-inflicted by the voluntary conduct of man, its weak and wicked victim. Judges of criminal courts sneaking from official experience, have grown weary calling attention to the drink habit as the principal cause of crime and nothing the writer could say would add to this manifest truth. But I can not refrain from saying that after five years' observation of the cases that have been before this court, three fourths of the crimes are due directly or indirectly to the excessive use of intoxicants, and that if the church and the state and public sentiment could make Georgia sober, the prisons would be vacant, the chain-gangs empty, and the cities, towns and country would be filled with prosperous and happy homes."

The Famous Rayo Lamp

The best part of the day is the evening, when the whole family is gathered together around the lamp.
The old days of the smoky fireplace and flickering candle are gone forever. In their place have come the convenient oil stove and the indispensable Rayo Lamp.
There are to-day, in the United States alone, more than 3,000,000 of these Rayo lamps, giving their clear, white light to more than 3,000,000 homes.
Other lamps cost more, but you cannot get a better light than the low-priced Rayo gives. It has become so popular we may almost call it "the official lamp of the American family."
The Rayo is made of solid brass, with handsome nickel finish—an ornament anywhere.

Wonderful Cures Reported in Germany.

The use of simple herbs as remedies instead of the more concentrated and usually more dangerous inorganic substances, has been revived very widely of late. In Germany a new school of physicians has arisen which throws out almost a whole of the pharmacopoeia and relies on an adaptation of the method of wild animals in curing themselves. . . . N. Y. World.

It was Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute of Buffalo, N. Y., who first advocated the extended use of some of our native roots, such as: Golden seal and Oregon grape root, manna root, queen's root, black cherry bark. These are the chief ingredients in Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which has been so well and favorably known for nearly half a century. A harmless cleanser and stomach tonic that nature has provided.

J. DONALD MATHESON of Ossining, N. Y. says: "I suffered for over five years with what the doctors told me was dilated condition of the stomach, associated with a catarrhal condition of some, and nervous heart. I had tried enough nux, bismuth, gentian, rhubarb, etc., to float a ship and naturally thought there was no cure for me, but after reading what eminent doctors said of the curative qualities of the ingredients of 'Golden Medical Discovery' I gave it a fair trial. Took the 'Discovery' and also the 'Pleasant Pellets' and can truthfully say I am feeling better now than I have in years. I cheerfully give permission to print this testimonial, and if any 'doubting Thomas' writes me I will 'put him wise' to the best all-around medicine in the country to-day."

J. D. MATHESON, Esq.

Monday having him $4 around for them. They also got nine nice 600-pound young ones from R. C. Arnold, the well known trader, at $3.75. The same firm shipped a couple of car-loads of hogs to Cincinnati this week, paying from $4.75 to $5.00 for them. Hogs are off a trifle just now.

At Columbus, Ga., on Monday, Jan. 1, between five and six hundred mules changed hands at an average price of $200 a head, making a total business of from $100,000 to $120,000 or about half as much business as was done in mules on Jan. 1, 1910, on this last date Columbus, did the largest mule business in its history. On Jan. 2, 1910, the day following, more than $50,000 worth of mules were sold.

Mr. L. C. Kerr, formerly of North Middletown, but now a well-known Fayette county horseman, recently sold his registered saddle stallion, Rexine, and four high class mares to F. R. Hill, acting for the Arkansas Valley Breeding Company. Rexine is a son of Rex by the great stallion Rex McDonald, and this famous stallion is the sire of the fast pacing gelding, J. B. 2:10 3-4, that trailed around 2:05. The mares bought by Mr. Hill were Fair Acre Queen by Bourbon King, Princess B. by Bourbon King, Lady Deewick by Forest Denmark, and a black mare, Dandy Jim.

HOG CHOLERA.

Lexington Paper Says It Is Spreading In This Section.

(Lexington Leader)

A wave of hog cholera is sweeping over Kentucky and the Northern States, and it is estimated that in Kentucky alone, which ranked 13th in the hog producing column according to the 1910 census, the loss has already exceeded a million dollars and promises to climb still higher.

Farmers in all parts of the state are rushing their hogs of all sorts onto the market to escape losing them through cholera and the result will doubtless be almost unprecedentedly high prices for hogs next year. The Experiment Station here is being appealed to for aid.

The cholera is of the most virulent form and the agricultural experiment stations in all the states are rushing their animal husbandry departments to the limit to try to furnish the farmers serum for vaccination to prevent the cholera, but the demand far exceeds the supply not only in Kentucky but in the other states as well, where reports indicate that condition are as bad or worse than they are in Kentucky.

While there have been more reports of the ravages of cholera in the western portion of Kentucky than in the central and eastern portions, inquiry reveals the fact that conditions in the Blue Grass are just as bad as in the western part of the state, and that there apparently is no abatement of the wave of this most dreaded of all diseases known to the hog breeder.

In Madison county alone, it is estimated by those in a position to know, there has been within the last few months more than a thousand dollars loss of hogs, while in some counties the loss will run much higher. In other counties of the Blue Grass the conditions are much the same and inquiry at the Experiment Station Saturday gained the information that thousands of requests for the anti-cholera serum have been received since the epidemic started in the spring or early summer the demand being far greater than the supply that can be obtained, because of the great demand for the serum in the northern states.

Since April 22 more than 13,000 doses of serum have been sent out by the Agricultural Station here alone and requests have been received. Two expert veterinarians have been kept at work in the state most of the time vaccinating hogs and have vaccinated more than 5,000 while the officers of the station are bending every energy toward remedying the situation, but as yet there is little or no improvement apparent.
